

Aberdeen

Now with some £56.7bn funds (as at 31.12.2010) under management across the region, Aberdeen Asset Management Asia Limited was established in Asia since 1992. They possess a team of 34 equity fund managers (spread across the Asia Pacific region) who follow a fundamental investment style emphasising the identification of good quality companies on low valuations relative to growth potential. These companies are likely to deliver above average growth in earnings and dividends over the long term.

Nomura

Nomura Asset Management U.K. Limited, the UK-based arm of one of Japan's biggest financial institutions, has been managing Pacific Basin assets since 1981. At a firm-wide level, Nomura Asset Management has over £44bn (as at 31.12.10) invested in Pacific Basin equities. They take the view that since investment markets are not fully efficient, active management based on fundamental research with strict risk controls can add value. The firm has considerable resource in the area with 173 equity investment professionals making some 8,030 company visits across the region during 2010.

Please remember that past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of an investment and the income from it can fall as well as rise as a result of currency and market fluctuations and you may not get back the amount originally invested.
